FINE PERFORMANCES BY GRAMMAR SCHOOL PUPILS

Present Splendid Program Two Nights At Grammar School Auditorium Before Large Crowds.

The Grammar School of Sonoma won new laurels Friday night and Saturday last week when they presented an entertainment which would have done credit to any community. The most critical of audiences would have grown enthusiastic at the juvenile "olde folke," Part One of the program being presented by the younger pupils in old fashioned costumes, singing the old time songs. The little folks came up the aisle and on to the stage in modern revue fashion. Ye leader was Master Preston Hotz and he, led well and acknowledged applause for his choruses with a bow which would have done credit to a John Philip Sousa or a Creatore.

Irene Montgomery and Billy Potter in old fashioned costumes sang the old favorite, Billy Boy, with all the familiar "cherry pie" refrain.

Alois Prestwood, looking very demure in her elaborate costume of long ago gave "The Lost Doll." The Minuet, danced by Melba VanDyne, Lenore Clements, Florence Robin and Virginia Lowell was beautifully done, the powdered wigs and costumes of the "boys" vying in effectiveness with the beffled, flowered Colonial gowns of their little partners.

"Grandma's Advice" by Ruth Prestwood made the hit of the evening.

JOHNSON MURDER TRIAL ON AT SANTA ROSA

The trial of William A. Johnson of Glen Ellen, accused of murdering his father, started in Santa Rosa Tuesday. Several women are on the jury.

The district attorney's office expects to prove that the elder Johnson was shot while sitting in a room adjacent to the garage at Glen Ellen.

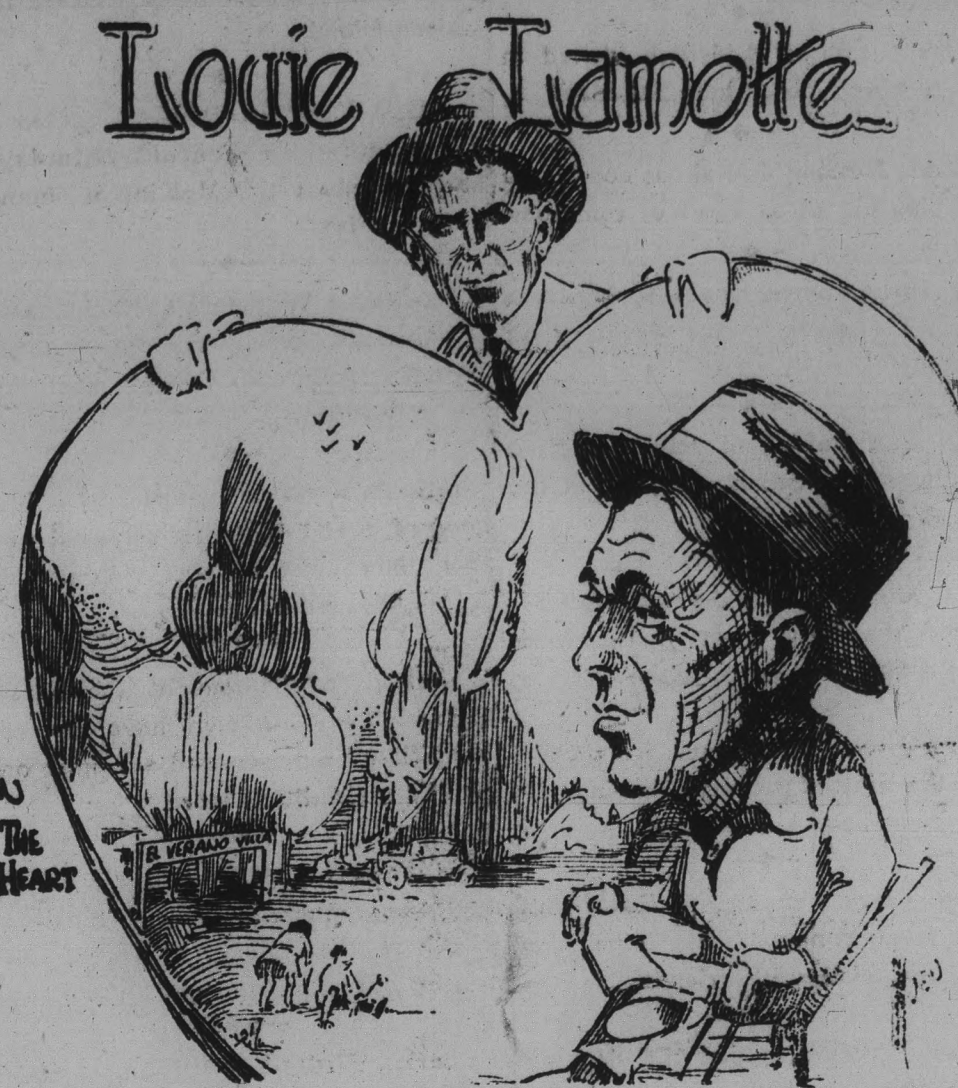

The defense will endeavor to bring out that the killing was in self defense. Johnson's wife testified on Thursday that the murdered man had an ungovernable temper.

The case went over Thursday until the coming week when it is expected to go to the jury.

GREATER PROSPERITY

The second week of our campaign for progress and prosperity brings gratifying results in the form of helpful cooperation. In today's issue you meet another active booster. Next week in connection with the prosperity column, will be published a complete list of campaign members. If you wish to be pictured with the boosters, do not wait to be asked—phone or call, as the artist will be here but a few days more.

Miss Virginia Pomeroy, niece of Mrs. Ray Hunter, took a prominent part in the Mountain Play Sunday at Mount Tamalpais. She was in the cast of the pied Piper. Miss Pomeroy is studying dancing and dramatics in San Francisco. Wednesday night she appeared at the Fairmont Hotel under the auspices of the Pacific Coast Musical Association.

Louis Lamotte optimist and booster is a man never satisfied with good enough. One of the real old timers, he is a big factor in the valley's improvements.

Mr. Lamotte owns and conducts the El Verano Villa, a resort that has grown and prospered for 25 years. One's first impression on entering the grounds is of luxurious shade giving trees, their rich green lending an air of enchantment to the clean white cottages. An extensive garden helps to explain the excellence of the food. Comfortable accommodations for over 150 people are afforded in this charming spot of the Sonoma Valley.

Mr. Lamotte, always an ardent worker for the welfare of Sonoma

Valley, was one of the originators of the Black Point Cut-off, a booster for the new highway and active at present in the Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce.

Speaking of a greater Sonoma Valley, he said:

"Good roads are essential. South of San Francisco the peninsula is almost completely populated. The next move is to the north—into the Sonoma Valley, whose climate and natural attractions are unexcelled in California. With good roads tourists are certain to build country homes on our hillsides and the short distance to the bay region makes it entirely logical that industries should arise within the valley. The solution is co-operation and good roads."

SONOMA WELL REPRESENTED AT SACRAMENTO

Many prominent Sonoma folks joined the procession to Sacramento's 49 celebration this week. Messrs. Jesse Burris, John Wagon, Lou Kearney, Tom Baines and many others were there.

At the Bret Harte dinner for writers and editors Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy were present, later attending the governor's ball at the state capitol building. The old fashioned costumes worn were most beautiful, many of the men folks as well as the ladies being dressed in the style of the splendid idle forties. W. L. Murphy wore a silk hat which belonged to R. A. McDonnell of Forest Hill, Calif., in 1850.

FINE PROGRAM FOR BOY SCOUTS BENEFIT

On next Friday evening, June 2, a concert, entertainment and dance will be given by the Boy Scouts Troop of Sonoma Valley under the auspices of the Sonoma Council, Boy Scouts of America, at the Grammar School auditorium, curtain at 8:15 p. m.

Professor Capelli, who has had the training of the boys, takes great interest in the progress of his pupils and is anxious to show what they can do. Professor Capelli has a number of classes in Petaluma and is going to bring over several musicians from Petaluma.

One number on the program which will be well worth hearing will be the singing of Mrs. Capelli, who has sung in opera and has truly a wonderful voice.

Miss Virginia Pomeroy, who just last week was one of the stars in the Mountain Play at Mt. Tamalpais, is to dance for the Boy Scouts.

After the program there will be dancing to the music of the Foxy Four jazz orchestra.

Come and give the boys your support.

Mrs. Newcom of Glen Ellen was a visitor to the city last Saturday.

NORMAN COWAN IS DRAGGED AT RODEO

The Star of Calistoga's Rodeo Was Injured In Accident Last Sunday Afternoon.

Norman Cowan of Kenwood narrowly escaped death while riding an outlaw horse at the rodeo being staged at Calistoga. The animal being ridden by Cowan struck his nose on the ground and turned a somersault, hurling Cowan through the air and bringing him down on the earth with such force as to render him unconscious.

With the rider limp and helpless from being hurled to the ground by the somersaulting horse, the animal regained his feet and started off on a running, dragging the unconscious form of Cowan over the rough ground. The man's foot had caught in the stirrup. Spectators at the rodeo were horrified at the spectacle, and Cowan was trampled by the animal as he got up, which added to the injuries sustained by the unfortunate man.

Fortunately for Cowan his boot came off his foot after having been dragged violently over the ground for a couple of hundred yards, and rescuers reached his inanimate form.

No doctor could be found at the rodeo grounds, and there was no ambulance in attendance, so the bleeding rider was placed in an automobile and hurriedly conveyed to a hospital at Calistoga.

After two hours time Cowan had regained consciousness.

Cowan is about 27 years of age and a fearless rider of more than local repute. He has been engaged in rodeo work for many years past in connection with his brother, Hazen Cowan. The latter did not participate in the rodeo Sunday, having gone to Sacramento with the Cowan outfit to participate there in the monster rodeo of the 49 camp.

Cowan is a nephew of J. B. Small and "Easy Jim" Small of Vineburg. He is an ex-service man.

AL JANSEN WEDS ACCOMPLISHED GIRL

Brilliant Church Wedding Marks
Nuptials of Former Sonoma Man
In Southern City.

The marriage of Miss Melba Manley, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Manley, and Alfred Jansen was solemnized last Saturday evening at the United Presbyterian church in the presence of about 400 friends and relatives.

Dr. Arthur Hicks and Rev. J. Acheson, the officiating clergymen, proceeded to the altar and were followed by the groom and his best man, Jerome Jansen of San Francisco, a brother. The ushers, Keith Manley, the bride's brother; Charles Bleyney and Donald Young of Fresno took their places.

Helen Breckenridge, cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, wearing Delph blue taffeta and carrying pink roses emerged from the main entrance followed by the dainty flower girl, little Meredith Manley, in fluffy white organdie with a wreath of blossoms about her head and carrying a gold basket with pink sweet peas.

Miss Manley on the arm of her father made a charming picture in the marriage robe.

Clifford Grimstad acted as veil bearer. The three brides maids, Miss-

"DRY" SQUAD SWOOPS DOWN ON RESORTS

Sonoma Valley was the scene of three raids by prohibition enforcement agents Tuesday.

The "we are seven" swooped down on the Tavern at Verano, Cabonot's Resort conducted by E. Peters at Boyes Springs, and Clements Inn at Fetters Springs. They claim to have secured evidence of outlawed beverages at all three resorts.

For some time past rumors of intended raids had been whispered around and two weeks ago Daisy Simpkins, the famous woman detective who has distinguished herself on former occasions, was in the valley gathering evidence. Following her tips seven booze sniffers arrived here.

In Napa on Tuesday four arrests were made on illicit liquor charges. Several detectives had been gathering evidence there the past three weeks. The "little Volstead act" is in operation in Napa.

DANCE MUSIC

The talented Fox sisters with Cecil Hunter, saxophone and Leland Adler, drums, will accept engagements to play dance music for local affairs.

EL VERANO
NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Louis Boissonneau, shoemaker, was sight seeing in Oakland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fleming are in San Francisco on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Craib of Eldridge visited at her mother's home here Monday.

Louis Kearney has about completed the planting of 25 acres of tomatoes.

N. P. Larson of Boyes Springs was an S. P. passenger for Berkeley on Monday.

Norman Baines of San Francisco was here over Sunday, a guest at the Baines home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Franquelin returned the latter part of the week from a visit to the bay cities.

Mrs. J. Sutter returned from Oakland the first of the week, having visited friends for several days.

Mrs. Clark Brannan of San Francisco is at Sonoma Vista for a several days visit with friends.

Miss Parker attended the dancing party given at Sonoma Tuesday in honor of Eugene Free's birthday.

Pat Canavan, a San Francisco soft drink emporium owner, was here recently, registered at the Helvetia.

Frank England arrived here from Canada the first of the week and will make his home here with relatives.

It is rumored that the evening S. P. train will arrive here one hour earlier when the new time card is issued.

The poisonous fluid put out as a grass killer over the S. P. right-of-way has claimed four cows along the line, two of them belonging to ex-supervisor Weise. The cows broke out of the pasture, grazed on the poisonous grass and were dead in 24 hours.

C. A. Lee, one of our rising young society Beau Brummels, was on a sight seeing trip to Oakland on Sunday.

Ralph Perkins, cashier of the Sonoma Valley Bank, was an S. P. passenger for Vallejo Sunday where he visited friends.

Ed, William and Miss Anna Dowdall motored to Concord Saturday and visited at the McKinnon home over Sunday.

Ex-Mayor William VanHacht passed through here from Sonoma on Monday enroute to Vallejo, where he has a position.

Mrs. A. Neal, early settler here, but now of Richmond, has returned to that place after a short visit at the A. W. Weaver home.

A large assortment of the latest summer hats for men have arrived from San Francisco and are now on display at Mullen's store.

T. Z. Blakeman, formerly a land owner here, but now of San Francisco was here the first of the week renewing old acquaintances.

Charles Birdsall, politician, capitalist and globe trotter, is here taking in the Valley of the Moon, and is registered at the French Cottage.

D. W. Corbin, chief whiskerino of Sonoma Valley, left for Sacramento the middle of the week to put his whiskers on show at the 49 celebration.

A carload of choice milk cows were shipped to Orlando Monday on the S. P., having been purchased from William Caulfield by a cattleman of that town.

Henry Howe, El Verano broncho buster, won the first prize for the champion bare back rider at the rodeo held at Calistoga Sunday. The prize was seventy bucks.

Al Waver, pioneer blacksmith, is in Sacramento taking in the celebration. Al wore a full-face beard and no doubt will make a hit with his new facial adornment at the capital city.

Pierre Zampa, sporting an Alameda whiskerino, was here Sunday showing the natives his wonderful growth before embarking for Sacramento. He was the guest of A. Chelini who has also started a growth.

Charles McDevitt left for Summit Saturday after a pleasant visit with Sonoma friends. Charles will return to Sacramento to put his chin whiskers on exhibition during the 49 celebration in the capital city.

Jack Watt, dispenser of 1 1-2 percent beer for the Tacoma Brewery at Santa Rosa was here one day last week. Jack is popular this way and is doing a rushing business in the near beer line through the valley.

A crew of S. P. carpenters are on the Santa Rosa branch repairing the different bridges and culverts in preparation for the heavy freight traffic during the summer season. An extra freight train will be put on to take care of the heavy freight during the fruit season.

Attorney Robert A. Poppe of Sonoma attired in '49-er garb and wearing one of the cutest facial decorations on his chin, boarded the S. P. train here Tuesday morning enroute to Sacramento to join the '49-ers at the capital and put his whiskerinos up for inspection at the celebration as a representative of the Valley of the Moon.

Sheriff John Boyes of Santa Rosa was through the Sonoma Valley on Sunday shaking hands with his many friends and looking over the ground for the political battle of which he is an aspirant. Boyes has made a good officer and succeeded the late Jim Petray and no doubt will be elected to serve the people of Sonoma county at the coming election.

Mike Joy, manager of the Petaluma oil station and J. W. Brazil, also of Petaluma, while returning from Napa at midnight Saturday, went into the ditch near Boyes Springs, turned over and wrecked the car. Finlaw, weary of Santa Rosa picked up the occupants and took them to Glen Ellen where medical aid was called from the state home. Joy received severe cuts on his head. Brazil was uninjured.

Claude Lombard, overseas war hero, is in Sacramento this week with a mess of whiskerinos entering in the whiskers contest. Claude, who has seen real battle on the Marne in the World War, raised a whisker in the trenches of Europe that excelled all of his buddies and even that of the colonel and expects to bring home the bacon to the Sonoma Valley. Claude's whiskers are red and are of the bolsheviki type.

John, the barber, our crack fisherman, while out in quest of the speckled beauty last week in Sonoma creek hooked a large eel. John, on returning to town, not knowing what the species was, boasted of catching a new kind of fish. The laugh was on John and local anglers are kidding the local barber at not knowing a fish from an eel, but John is taking it good naturedly and says we all have to learn.

Politics are beginning to boom here and already the wise ones are beginning to pick their favorites for the different county offices. The fight for sheriff looks to be the most interesting and looks like there will be something doing at the August primaries. El Verano is expected to have a candidate for constable. The aspirant is young, fearless and honest and if he enters will win hands down. Several will enter the race.

This Saturday night any one wishing to enjoy a good time should come to El Verano. Louis Lamotte will hold his annual opening at the El Verano Villa. Louis Parente at the Tavern will also start the season off with a grand ball while S. Rosenthal will open his new dance hall, recently completed. The feature at all of these places will be up-to-date jazz music and an invitation by the proprietors is extended to the public in general.

A number of whiskateers of the El Verano Whiskerino Club are leaving for Sacramento this week to compete in the 49 celebration. Several of our business men refused to join this famous club, claiming that they could not raise hair on their head, let alone on their face, and are now watching the whiskered boys boarding the rattlers for the capital city and wishing they had entered and were going along to the 49 celebration.

GRAPE SITUATION IS ENCOURAGING

With a bumper crop staring the grape growers in the face and with a greatly increased demand from the Eastern market, there is a rosy outlook to the situation as far as Sonoma county is concerned, according to Edward B. Strong, Jr., representative of the Pacific Fruit Exchange.

Mr. Strong states that the Eastern demand is at present at least ten times as strong as that of last year; that where an Eastern consumer took one car last year, this year he is asking for ten cars. There was more or less uncertainty last year over the question of shipping grapes without icing the cars and the fact that they can be shipped in box cars with comparative safety has eased up the shipping situation greatly.

The only disagreeable feature to be found so far this year is the possibility of shortage of box shooks. At the present time many of the mill manufacturing box shooks are confronted with a strike of the mill hands and a genuine shortage may exist before the season is far advanced. Mr. Strong brought in six carloads of shooks which he has been making up into lug boxes at the company warehouse near the depot.

Going prices on Zinfandels at present are $80 per ton, $92.50 on Petit Syrahs and Carignans and $125 on Alicante. From the appearance of the market these prices are subject to upward trend as the season advances. Growers have been hesitant about signing selling contracts too early, due to the market outlook.

Sonoma county looks to have a normal crop. With the heavy frost conditions last year it was hardly to be expected that the new wood would produce anything like a bumper crop this year, but with the new acreage coming in this county should produce about 40 per cent larger crop than last year.

With the refrigerator problem in shipping eased by the use of box and ventilator cars, the grower will not have to worry so much about getting his crop to the market.—Healdsburg Enterprise.

CARACCIO CHARGED WITH VIOLATING CITY ORDINANCE

Ralph Caraccio, owner of the East Petaluma hotel, was arrested by Officers Bert Johnson and Ernest Roberts charged with violating the city ordinance No. 209. The officers walked into the place on a tour of inspection and according to their statement, found Caraccio serving liquor to patrons. Officer Johnson seized three bottles which were on the table and attempted to seal them when he states Caraccio broke the bottles in an attempt to destroy the evidence. The officers then secured a jug of wine. They ordered Caraccio to accompany them, which he did. When searched at the police station the officers stated they secured a bottle of jackass brandy which Caraccio had in his hip pocket. Caraccio was later released by putting up $1000 cash bail for his appearance in court. It is said that the arrest of Caraccio, who has no soft drink license, will probably be a test case of the city ordinance.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED BY REV. FATHER BYRNE

On May 8th at a quiet church service performed by Rev. Father Byrne Miss Eva Sgheiza, daughter of Mrs. Rosa Sgheiza was quietly married to Ettore Forgnone, formerly of Turlock, now employed at the Mission Creamery, Sonoma. The couple were attended by Mrs. Ida Giubergia, sister of the groom and Vito Sgheiza, a brother of the bride.

After the wedding the newlyweds departed in their car for the bay cities where the honeymoon was spent.

Many congratulations have been received by the young couple.

GIER'S NAPA VALLEY VINEYARD AND CELLARS SAVED

Federal agents seeking to include the Giersburg wineries in Napa county in the seizures made against the Theodore Gier Vineyard Company for alleged conspiracy to violate the prohibition statute, were frustrated when they discovered that the Giersburg property had been transferred to a group of San Francisco capitalists 12 months ago.

Oakland, Napa and St. Helena properties of the company were seized on orders from Washington after a report by prohibition officials of charges against Gier and his employees of conspiracy to violate the law by illegal withdrawals of wine.

GREATER PROSPERITY CAMPAIGN

THE INDEX-TRIBUNE in inaugurating the Greater Prosperity Campaign is in line with other up-to-date community boosters anxious to bring to the fore the leading business men of the community and give voice to their sentiment. Perhaps in no better way can we introduce our progressive citizens than by way of the pen drawings of the cartoonist. "Meet Mr. Booster" is what the drawing implies and it brings out in kindly humor the characteristics of the individual interested in the welfare of our valley. The great value of this kind of advertising is its power of speed up interest in the community. Optimism is contagious and a good word and message of confidence from men primarily interested in the advancement of this section has a wonderful tonic effect. Individualism will be merged into community co-operation when men become acquainted with each other's views and community ideals and they will then work in harmony with the one idea of bettering and building up Sonoma Valley. The prosperity wave is brought about by live wires in a community. The town that finds itself high and dry with no flood tide of prosperity or drifting idly while other cities prosper is in the hands of silurians. When a city cuts loose from the old barnacles and lets the wide-awake progressive men take the helm of affairs that city rides the crest of the wave and becomes a factor in civic life.

Sonoma Valley has men of broad ideas, fine impulses and earnest intent to work for its upbuilding. Meet them weekly on the first page of the Sonoma Index-Tribune.

SHORT skirts and face powder are vindicated following the re-election of trustees of the Rincon School where there were ructions over the ultra-fashionable school teacher, with abbreviated clothes and powder puff. The conservative critics in the district got all "het up" over the attire and vanity of the school marm. Their attempt to get her fired failed dismally when the up and coming patrons of the school took her part and declared that as long as the pedagogy was broad on intellect the length of the skirt mattered not. As to powder for a shiny nose, the court of final appeal decided that even perfect gentlemen use powder—then why not the ladies?

"ONE shot in Los Angeles booze raid," says a newspaper. A shot of what, says we.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR EUGENE FREE

Last Tuesday evening the young Sonoma friends of Eugene Free of Buena Vista were delightfully entertained at a surprise party given by his mother, Madame Maerilla and his aunt, Mrs. Baskin. The affair took place at the music studio and was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. A lovely birthday cake illuminated and prettily decorated was served with ice cream, punch and other refreshments during the evening. Dancing was enjoyed by the young friends of the guest of honor until a late hour.

NEW SERVICE STATION READY EARLY IN JUNE

The Standard Oil Company's local representative gives out the good news that the modern service station to be erected in Sonoma opposite the Index-Tribune office will be ready to serve the public early in June. The workmen now engaged in completing stations at Cloverdale, Healdsburg and Ukiah will come to Sonoma and begin work shortly, the steel for construction having already arrived.

NOTED VISITOR IN VALLEY TUESDAY

Col. E. A. Hoefler and family of Salem, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Hoefler and little sons of Oakland motored through the Valley of the Moon on Tuesday stopping to call at the W. L. Murphy home. Mr. Hoefler, who is editor of the Pacific Coast Manufacturer, was enroute to Del Monte to the "Bankers' convention where he is to deliver an address.

PETALUMA AND THE COUNTY FAIR

THE decision of the Sonoma County Fair Association to join hands with Petaluma's Egg Day and to hold the exposition at Petaluma this year is a wise and well merited one. The Sonoma County fair should be one of the greatest fairs in California and could be with the proper amount of co-operation in displaying the manifold industries and unsurpassed products of this section of California. Above them all towers the egg products of Petaluma and overtopping the enterprise of all the rest of the county is Petaluma's proud publicity record and her success in making her crowd heard around the world. Petaluma has demonstrated what she can do for Petaluma and if she is to join hands in the giving of a county fair we will have a splendid ally. The Egg Day shows put on by Petaluma have proven her "class" and will reflect credit on the entire county fair to be staged in the egg city.

We suggest that every city in Sonoma County, including Sonoma and Sonoma Valley get into the picture of Sonoma County as it will be presented at Petaluma in August and bring their importance and special products strongly to the fore as will be necessary in the effulgence of Petaluma's brilliant display. Petaluma's enterprise should whet the desire of every live community to bring out its best features at the county fair.

FREEDOM of conscience is absolutely essential to moral responsibility. No man can be held accountable for the exercise of his choice in a matter wherein liberty of choice is withheld from him. This being true, the success of National Reform would destroy moral responsibility to God. But God has not released men from responsibility to Him. While rendering to our fellow men their due, it is still duty to render to God the things that are God's.—Liberty Magazine.

DESTROYING truck loads of wine is a poor cure for drunkenness when we consider what will be substituted by those who drink—the vile jackass which flows from countless stills and will continue to do so as long as prohibition denies the drinker good wine, properly aged. It is nothing short of desecration—this Volstead law. It is crack-brained folly for a nation to strain at a gnat and swallow a camel. The more wine they destroy the more new stuff and jackass will be consumed. It is enough to make Father Time throw his hour-glass away.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Matsuyama and family motored to Sacramento this week to attend the celebration and get a glimpse of 49 days customs and styles.

The El Verano Parent-Teachers Association will be represented at Cotati June 3 and many school children of Sonoma Valley will attend the exercises there.

The Montaldo family, who have been in Italy for the past two years, will shortly sail for home. Mr. Montaldo was a prominent dairyman of Sonoma Valley.

Friends of Mrs. Otto Rufus (Gilbert) will be sorry to hear that she has been critically ill and the family felt extremely worried last week as to the outcome of her sickness.

Mrs. William Trudgen has been confined to her home with a bad knee and has been under the doctor's care. Her daughter, Mrs. Winston and husband have been here from Richmond on a visit.

Mrs. Hattie Bridges has been enjoying a visit from her father whom she had not seen for many years. Her father is an old soldier and had been at Santa Monica before coming here to visit his daughter and grandchildren.

Herman Haynes, one of the stars of the grammar school operetta, narrowly escaped serious injury which might have kept him out of the show when he was struck by an automobile one day last week while riding his bicycle.

Frank Wedekind, who has a prominent surgical supply house in San Francisco, returned to his Sonoma farm Sunday after a business trip to the city. Mr. Wedekind has a fine vineyard and the 1932 crop is very promising.

Emile Andrieux and little son of Summit were passengers to San Francisco on the N. W. P. Saturday morning. Emile has just gotten out of the S. P. hospital where he underwent an operation. He is an employee of the S. P. in the Sierras. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams have purchased the San Antonio Service Station, grocery store and ice cream parlor on the highway at the bridge five miles south of Petaluma. Mr. Williams has been an attendant at the Sonoma State Home for the past 10 years. Mrs. Williams conducted an ice cream parlor at Glen Ellen.

The many friends of B. F. Campbell will be pleased to learn that he is back at his home following his operation.

GRAPE PRICES TO BE FIXED JUNE 8th

On Thursday, June 8, the board of directors of the California Grape Growers Exchange will fix the opening schedule of prices on wine grapes.

Buyers are in the field but find it difficult to tie up grapes, even when they offer as high as $85 a ton, f.o.b. California.

This means black grapes of ordinary variety and it also means that the grower agrees to furnish the boxes and load the car. The net price to growers on an $80 a ton basis would be about $67.50.

In this same connection there have been spectacular offers for Alicante Bouschet, Petit Bouschet and Grand Noir grapes, the fresh juice of which is of red color. Report has it that prices as high as $125 a ton are in vogue right now for these varieties loaded in cars at California shipping points.

As compared with last year at this time, this is a most unusual situation. Buyers are offering to contract grapes at a firm price six months in advance of the actual harvest season. The indication is therefore, that the eastern markets want wine grapes.

Dr. Hicks read the ritual of the United Presbyterian church, using the ring service.

Following the ceremony the entire wedding party took supper at the Hotel Fresno after which the bridal couple stole away for a short trip to bay cities and the southern beaches.

Alfred Jansen is a business man who before coming here two years ago conducted a boys band at Sonoma and later acted as a soloist at the First Presbyterian church of San Francisco. During the war he served in the band at Ft. McDowell. He is now band director at Fowler and leader of the United Presbyterian church choir.

Upon their return to Fowler June 8th the couple will be at home to their friends on 5th St.—Fresno Republican

ANOTHER OLD TIME SONOMA BOY RETURNS

Tom Bulger, who resided here in 1887 has returned to Sonoma Valley, having accepted a position with the Sonoma Land Co. Tom's folks lived here formerly and when he was a boy he distinguished himself by falling into a well back of the original Sonoma Valley Bank building. He was rescued and then announced to his friends that he had been "accidentally drowned." Mr. Bulger still recalls the incident and his humorous recounting of his experience. He met quite a few old time friends while in town Wednesday, including George Breitenbach.

Part Two of the program was the tuneful operetta "The Windmills of Holland," which was reproduced with great success, the new cast handling the parts extremely well. Herman

Haynes again demonstrated his talent as a singer and comedian. Victor Erlebach was a breezy American salesman, Everett Murphy an artistic musician, Stanley McGill a clever Dutch lad and the young ladies of the cast all looked exceedingly pretty in their quaint Dutch costumes.

Saturday evening the program concluded with dancing.

It is rumored that Lowell Brothers will dissolve partnership, Supervisor Lowell selling out to his brother, George.

LOVE—AND ALL THAT

"Love is blind and marriage is an occult."—Enamelina in London Opinion.

"Love is the only thing, really."—Arianna Toner, by Anne Douglas Sedgwick.

"Love will die without its courtesies. To the young, love is a luxury; to the old it is a necessity."—Just Human, by Frank Crane.

"In love there are no conventions. Time doesn't exist. No woman is really strong, unless she has a man who loves her."—Someone on whom she can count.—The Red Knight, by F. Brett Young.

FROM THE PENCIL'S POINT

If responsibility doesn't weigh anything it isn't responsible.

Experience is a teacher of mankind and some men will learn of no other.

Nature tries to balance things. As a man grows "short" his face gets long.

MRS. CHASE NEXT PRESIDENT

The Native Daughters held their regular meeting last Monday evening with a large attendance. Election of officers took place and Mrs. Chase will be next president. Amy Drake was elected to attend the annual convention to be held in June in San Rafael.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Florence Andler and the splendid talent donated for the homeless children benefit.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB

HAD FINE PARTY

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club confetti dance last Saturday was a social and financial success. The club has started to buy a fine lot opposite Zwickel's garden for a clubhouse.

There will be services at Trinity Episcopal church, Sonoma, Sunday, Rev. Partridge of Petaluma officiating.

PRISON LOOKED GOOD TO HIM

Burglar's Harrowing Experience Surely Calculated to Touch Even the Hardest Heart.

The burglar climbed through the open window, entered the drawing room, and hid behind a curtain.

Hardly had he concealed himself before the youngest daughter of the house had a piano lesson. An hour later—at six o'clock, to be precise—her little brother had a long and spirited tussle with a shrilly protesting violin.

At seven o'clock the elder girl had an hour's singing lesson, and at eight o'clock the elder boy began practicing, but with indifferent success, a particularly maddening little trill on the flute.

At nine o'clock they all assembled, and played and sang in what they fondly, but erroneously, imagined to be harmony.

It was then that the burglar rushed forth, threw himself prostrate on the floor, and begged to be arrested and lodged in a place of safety.

CURES WROUGHT BY PICTURE

Virgin of Pompeii Credited by Devout Catholics in Italy With Miraculous Powers.

The Virgin of Pompeii, to whose protection Pope Benedict asked to be commended by Cardinal Silli, is the patron of a modern shrine which has become one of the most famous in Italy. About 1875 Bartolo Longo, a wealthy Catholic layman living in the region of the buried city of Pompeii, near Naples, found in an ancient castle, among a number of other articles of antique furniture, a painting of the Madonna. The painting did not show its authorship, but its beauty attracted Longo, and he placed it on display in his home. An infirm woman, visiting the house, knelt before the picture and prayed for relief and she at once declared that she was cured of her sickness. The news of this cure caused others to seek healing, and after more cures were reported, Longo placed the picture in a small chapel. The number of visitors and the reports of cures increased, and the picture is now displayed in a large church in care of the Dominican fathers, about two miles from the Pompeii excavations usually visited by tourists.

Honor Belongs to Portuguese.

Quiros, the Portuguese navigator, in 1606, was the first white man to see the rugged outline of the coast of the New Hebrides, which rises abruptly out of the deep sea in the hurricane zone of the tropics. Believing he had discovered the great southern continent which was at that time the dream of navigators, Quiros may be compared to Columbus, who thought he had found a route to India when he sighted the palm-fringed shores of the West Indies.

He called his discovery Australia del Espiritu Santo, which has been shortened by traders to Santo, and is applied to the largest island of the group. Some of the other large mountainous and partly volcanic islands are Ambrym, Annatam, Aurora, Apl, Pentecost, Eromanga, Mallicolo, and Tanna, the home of the "great lighthouse of the southern isles," Tanna volcano, which burst forth brilliantly every three or four minutes.

MODERN DEVICE ASSURES PATRONS BEST MEAT

Equipped with the Hussman freezer display counter, Paulson's Sonoma meat market is now as well fixed to serve the best meats as any big market in the county. The plate glass shows various cuts of meat to advantage and how perfectly they are kept by the dry circulating cold which the freezer counter provides. Mr. Paulson of the Cash and Carry Market is to be congratulated on the addition of this modern device. It represents a large investment but will more than repay the proprietor.

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the big June 3rd county school pageant, track meet and graduation day at the Cotati speedway. Already 47 schools have signed up for entries in the pageant, The Melting Pot of Nations, 52 are signed up for participation in the field meet and 61 have entered May poles.

SPECIAL TRAIN SERVICE TO CO. GRADUATION EVENT

As an added attraction for the field meet and as an incentive to promote athletic activities in public schools, Walter Nagle of Nagle's Sport Shop has offered a silver trophy cup to the team or individual making the best showing in the meet as agreed by the judges of the various events. Another trophy cup has been offered by Al Stein of Stein's stationery store for the team making the best time in the relay races. There are eight relay teams entered, all of different weights and the cup goes to the team making the best time, regardless of weight.

Special trains and special rates have been arranged for with the N. W. P. company for the day. A train will leave Cloverdale it is announced, at 8:15 on the morning of June 3rd, and will make stops at all way stations. The train will pass through Healdsburg at 9:50 and will stop in Santa Rosa at 9:22, arriving at Cotati station at 9:37, leaving in the evening at 4:20.

From the southern part of the county and the Sonoma Valley section, people will be accommodated with a train meeting the regular Glen Ellen train at Ignacio at 8:25 arriving at Petaluma at 8:15 and at Cotati at 9:16. Special rates are announced for adults at one and one-half fare for the round trip, and for all school children, both grammar and high school students at one-half the price paid by adults.

The day is planned to be the biggest school celebration in the history of the county. More than 75 schools have already signed up for participation and it is hoped to bring the number up to 100 by June 3. Over 75 May poles will be in operation at one time. This is also a record, it is said. The Cotati bowl will be entirely transformed as school districts in the outlying districts are furnishing trees and greenery to camouflage the infield of the track.

The proceeds of the event are to go to the public health work in the schools, it being planned to use the surplus cash from the proceeds to furnish a school nurse who will make regular trips to the schools of the county superintending the health and sanitation of the children and the buildings, as well as conducting health drills and studies.

FORMER SONOMA GIRL LEADS CLUB WOMEN

Mrs. Neal Haig, formerly Emily Huddart of Agua Caliente, who is now a resident of Burlingame, San Mateo county, is a member of the staff of the Burlingame Advance and is prominent in women's club circles of that city.

At the recent breakfast given by the Burlingame club at the Hotel St. Francis in honor of the club's fifteenth anniversary, Mrs. Haig arranged the program and was toastmistress of the brilliant affair, introducing the speakers, including Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald of the Federation.

Mrs. Haig is proud that she claims Sonoma Valley as her girlhood home and some day hopes to return here. She is the mother of two beautiful children, Neil Junior, not yet three years of age, and Mary, aged six months. In writing to Sonoma friends, Mrs. Haig says:

"The call of the Valley is strong within me; the dear old hills of Sonoma Valley, I love them fondly. There is something about the Valley of the Moon that holds one, no matter how far away or how busy we are."

ITALY RESIDENT GIVES POWER OF ATTORNEY

A power of attorney by Christina Acquistapace, who resides in Italy, to Agostino Acquistapace, was filed in the county clerk's office Monday. The power of attorney gives Agostino Acquistapace authority to act for Christina Acquistapace in administering the estate left by Caesar Acquistapace.

The document was witnessed by Attilio Fotcher, a notary public for the province of Sondrio, Italy, and is approved by Norman Winship, the American consul.

Caesar Acquistapace was killed here when his auto was struck by a train.

A marriage license was issued in San Francisco on Friday of last week to Harold R. Koenig, formerly of Boyes Springs and Blanche J. Chicago of San Francisco.

X RAY AND CHEMICAL LABORATORIES IN CONNECTION WITH MY OFFICE

To save a shift on hills

Many an automobile fails to deliver the power and speed of which it is capable, fails in acceleration and on the hills, because of poor lubrication.

The purpose of lubrication is to reduce friction. In this connection it must be remembered that oils have internal or molecular friction. The heavier the oil the more this internal friction, which has to be overcome by and uses up power.

The ideal oil for the automobile is the thinnest oil which will keep the bearing surfaces separated, and at the same time offer in itself the least frictional resistance to the engine power going to the rear or driving wheels.

Such an oil—if it has "oiliness," stability and purity,—will give perfect lubrication, and permit the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.

Zerolene meets these conditions perfectly.

Oiliness—Stability—Purity

Zerolene has great "oiliness," which causes it to cling to bearing surfaces while offering in itself a minimum of frictional resistance to the engine power.

It has great stability, which causes it to resist engine heat and to form a minimum of carbon of a soft, flaky nature which goes out with the exhaust. And it is pure.

If you follow the Zerolene chart of Correct Lubrication, you will develop the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of your car.

"BEE" SENT REPORTER TO BUZZ AROUND WOMEN'S FARM

The Sacramento Bee sent a special writer to Buena Vista to get a slant on the new industrial state farm for delinquent women and here is the story in part:

Women inmates of the State Industrial Farm for Women take the whole idea of being led from the paths of their former underworld lives at the institution as a huge joke. Inmates interviewed at the Farm recently ridicule the entire idea. They break into an uproar of laughter when telling of their duties, such as feeding small goats out of a baby's milk bottle.

The institution was created by the 1919 legislature upon arguments advanced by social workers that the women of the underworld could be reformed if placed in a proper environment and given the tasks of a normal life to perform. The women themselves say it cannot be done.

The women inmates consider the place a state prison farm, and in the language of one of them, they are one-time losers. They believe the state has done them a grave injustice for giving them indeterminate prison terms of from six months to five years for what the law defines as a misdemeanor.

The women consider themselves in a workhouse and they do those things they are ordered to do only because they expect compliance with orders will give them good credits which will get them out of the prison farm in the minimum time. The women figure they are doing terms of from six months to five years and they want to get it over with as soon as possible.

The women, as observed at the institution have not forgotten their past lives. They swear, they smoke, they discuss their underworld careers and they have personal encounters, which in one case resulted in an inmate from Sacramento receiving a black eye.

The women smoke by virtue of a modification of rules of the institution made two weeks ago by the Board of Directors. Prior to this time smoking was forbidden. The inmates say it was found practically impossible to prevent the women from smoking and according to one of the officials of the institution it was found best to permit those women who smoked before they were sentenced to the prison farm to continue the habit.

It also has been found impossible to prevent swearing and telling raucous stories.

When the writer arrived at the institution yesterday, loud talking was heard inside. Apparently half a dozen or more women were all talking at once. The outsider's efforts to make himself heard at the door were fruitless. The interior of the place was in an uproar.

It developed one of the women had a "kick" to make a point the honor system of self government under which the place is conducted and she was making herself heard. Half a dozen other women also were making themselves heard, but the women who had the "kick" intended to win the argument, for as she explained later, she was "about to bust somebody over the head with a chair."

The Bee representative had been in the place but a short time when a woman from Sacramento requested to make a statement.

"Please tell Judge Anderson to let me come back to Sacramento and serve the rest of my sentence in the county jail," she pleaded.

"What's the matter?" she was asked. "Well, for one thing, look at that black eye I have. A girl hit me in the eye and he was not punished."

Miss O. Barhydt, bookkeeper at the institution, who was in charge of the place in the absence of Miss Blanche Morse, the superintendent, denied the girl who hit Mildred West had not been punished.

She was taken out in the garden by one of the other girls and given a sound thrashing. That, however, was not the authorized punishment, she was disciplined in addition. Miss Barhydt said.

It was learned the fight was over a letter which the Sacramento women said another girl had taken from her. "She is bigger than I am and she slipped up behind me and let me have it in the eye," she explained. Her left eye was discolored.

It developed a young girl from the Ventura Home for Girls took her part and gave the assailant a beating.

Miss Earhydt said these are the only fist fights the women have had. "So far as that is concerned, there are fights in county jails and prisons," she said.

The Sacramento women declared the institution is worse than a jail. She said:

"I was sent over here at my own request by Judge Anderson because a Sacramento woman social worker talked me into it. But, my God, please tell Judge Anderson to get me out of this. It is worse than jail. It is just plain hell. There are rows here all the time and these women in charge don't know how to stop it."

"I thought I was sent over here for six months, but the people here tell me I'm here for a term of from two to five years."

"This is a prison farm. The women in here are tough. I have had experience in the world but let me tell you, I have learned lots here I never knew before."

The woman who has been in the institution the longest, the first inmate and one whom the officials of the place say shows great improvement was perhaps the most anxious to get out of the place.

"Well, I suppose it is better than a jail if a woman has to do time," she said, "but it is not justified. The food is good, the air is fine and Miss Morse and the officials are lovely to me, but the thing that kills me is that I'm doing an indeterminate sentence. I tell you it is not right to shut up a woman for a term of one to five years for vagrancy."

This woman went into the institution January 10th and figures she will be due to be released July 10th and she is anxious that it be sooner if possible.

It was learned the prison farm is operated under a self government system. A girl who has been in the place two months was elected directress two weeks ago. She details the women to their tasks and while she seems to be popular with the women, she declared she "has a dickens of a time to get them to do any work."

When interviewed the directress was particularly concerned over the fact there are two young girls from the Ventura Home for Girls at the place.

"It is wrong to send those girls here. They never have been prostitutes and they have not been narcotic addicts. They learn things here they never knew before. I think it is a shame," she said.

These girls later expressed themselves in the same manner.

The directress explained that the women who work outside are clad in blue denim knickers, leggings and a blue denim shirt with a bandana handkerchief around their heads. The women inside wear blue and white striped dresses, the same as worn by women in the San Quentin prison. She said a woman sentenced to San Quentin had arrived at the prison farm because the woman has a 3 months old baby girl. She said there are two middle aged women there who were committed as inebriates.

There are seventeen women in all in the institution.

The directress explained the duties of the girls. Some sew, others tend the goats; some work in the gardens and still others do regular household duties.

She was greatly amused in telling of the feeding and tending of the goats.

"We are expected to work up here and I detail the girls on the work, but I have a dickens of a time getting them to work. Really you know after all we are not farmers. When they come here the majority of the girls are not strong enough to do work."

GOLF LINKS PROGRESS.

The installation of the pumping plant at the Sonoma Valley Golf and Country Club has proved highly successful and no property will be better able to care for its green than this, with its fine supply of water which is now to be widely utilized in getting the links in shape for the opening day. The grounds surrounding the club house are being further beautified and much gardening work has been done the past two weeks.

Mrs. Fred Brunneman and daughter, aunt and cousin of Mrs. Water Paulson, have been visiting at El Verano.

EARLY PICKING INJURES QUALITY OF PLUMS

It is probable that the demand for California plums could be expanded considerably if a uniform high quality product were put upon the market. There has been a tendency however, among shippers during recent years to pick the fruit in a greener condition with each succeeding season, because of a desire to reach the early market and secure the high prices paid for the first few cars of plums shipped.

The soundness of this policy was the subject of recent investigation by the United States Department of Agriculture. It is evident from studies made for one season by the Bureau of Plant Industry, that the tendency toward early picking results in placing an inferior grade of fruit on the market. Two varieties of plums, the Wickson and the Grand Duke, were studied. Although the fruit colors fairly well after early picking, the flavor is flat and much inferior to that which could be secured if the picking were delayed even one week longer over the entire state.

There is a marked increase in the total sugars in plums, as the fruit approaches maturity on the tree, and the percentage of acids drops off, so the plums are sweeter when mature. The early pickings of the experimental lots picked before the commercial picking season opens were entirely inedible and worthless. By far the highest quality of fruit was obtained in the later pickings which occurred about 10 days after the commercial crop was removed.
